BIG MATINEE AT HARTFORD JULY 4TH

A program of matinee races is to be staged in connection with an all day celebration of the Fourth at Hartford, with the prospect that the entries will constitute the largest field of horses ever gathered at the Hartford track.

A total of $300. in purses will be offered in the four races on the speed program. The first as a Class A trot for a purse of $50, a Class B, pace for a purse of $75, a class C, trot for purse of $75, and a Free for All pace for a purse of $100.

Horsemen from all over southwestern Michigan are planning to try out their horses at the Hartford matinee, and a number of new animals which will be seen on the Michigan tracks for the first time this season will make their initial appearance at Hartford July 4.

The free-for-all pace promises to be the crowning event of the meet, with a number of the best known horses in this section in the field of entries, while the other events will be well filled.

The track at the Hartford fair grounds is in prime condition, and the exhibition of speed should prove the best that has ever been afforded racing fans at the popular Hartford matinees.

The celebration at Hartford will open with an athletic program at nine o'clock in the morning, in which liberal prizes will be awarded. A children's parade and home talent circus will be among the novel evening features.

The celebrated Hull House Boy's Band of Chicago will furnish music for the day, closing with a concert in the evening. The band consists of forty boys from Hull House, Chicago, and they are gifted musicians, selected from the hundreds of boys affiliated with the Hull House organization.

Among the numerous attractions scheduled for the Fourth, Hartford will afford one of the most interesting "safe and sane" celebrations southwestern Michigan has seen.

THEATRICAL MANAGER WILL DIRECT CARNIVAL FEATURE AT PYTHIAN FESTIVAL

Instead of entering into a contract with one of the organized carnival companies for the Knights of Pythias carnival to be held in Hartford from August 1 to 5, the carnival committee of Interville Lodge has arranged with Millard Reid, manager of the Mabel Hawthorne company of players, to provide the carnival attractions.

Manager Reid is well known in the amusement world, and the fact that the carnival attractions will be under his personal direction insures a week of clean amusement. Mr. Reid and his company have been making their headquarters at Hartford for the summer, and are playing a theatrical circuit composed of seven towns and cities in this section.

In discussing the matter yesterday Manager Reid declared that he had already opened negotiations with a number of carnival attractions with a view to bringing to Hartford a collection of shows and amusement devices that will be clean and wholesome and free from the usual objections to organized carnival companies.

A carnival queen contest will be launched as one of the features of the week, and the candidates for queenship honors will be announced by Mr. Reid within a few days. The theatrical manager believes that the week will be of sufficient importance to warrant a collection of amusement features which will surpass the usual carnival program, and that the Knights of Pythias carnival will result in putting Hartford on the amusement map in big letters—Hartford Day Spring.

The Mabel Hawthorne Co., of which Mr. Reid is manager, gives a good, clean entertainment every Wednesday evening at Longwell's opera house. If you have not seen them, "get the habit" and go. You are sure to enjoy the evening.

SOUTH HAVEN WILL CELEBRATE THE 4th

South Haven will pay tribute to her khaki clad boys in the Fourth of July celebration with a great display of fireworks in the place of the spectacle, "On the Border" that the troopers and others had planned for the evening.

Instead of being "On the Border" in the great natural amphitheatre of the Dyckman avenue ball grounds, the troopers will be at Grayling preparing for service on the real border where trouble is brewing.

The fireworks display will open with six great aerial guns and will include a fine assortment of rockets and bombs and a quantity of set-pieces, concluding with Old Glory, and the Odd Fellows emblem and Good Night, with a bouquet of fifty fancy rockets.

In the parade of the forenoon, the space that had been assigned to the Troop and its platoon of Zouaves will be left open as a silent reminder of the seventy South Haven boys at Grayling.

THE SILVER FAMILY PLEASED THE CROWD

Last Friday evening the Silver Family and their band of tumblers, acrobats, singers and all that go to make a circus on a small scale, reached Paw Paw and pitched their tents on the ball grounds east of the city, and notwithstanding that the thunders rolled, the lightning flashed and the rain came down in torrents, the tent was well filled. Some people and some water. It was a good natured crowd and good fresh rain water never hurt anyone.

The band and orchestra, composed of the members of the Silver family, played some fine music and tried their best to drown the discordant elements on the outside. The acrobatic performers were of the best in their respective lines and their several "stunts" were much enjoyed. The strong man and woman enacted wonders with their muscles, the gentleman lifting a heavy plank on which sat four full grown men and the lady, who, by the way, was no feather weight. This feat alone was fully worth the price of admission. In fact, take it all in all, it was a clean, nice little show and we are sure if they should ever make our little city and the weather man would permit, that they would be greeted with a much larger crowd.

RECOVERED SPEECH WHEN COURT SAID THIRTY DAYS

John Hands, giving his age at 75 years, lost his speech and could not utter a word of the English language when he was arrested by Under-sheriff Lang last Monday on a charge of assault. He was arraigned before Judge Rowland and was given 30 days in the county jail. The justice court was the scene of considerable contortion stunts, the "dumb" man making motions as to what he wished to reveal to the judge—truly it was a second Barnum & Bailey. When the judge said 30 days he immediately regained control of his vocal organs and talked "freely." The officer say he has now full control of his speech and worked his game well.

Hands is a peddler who has notions and bric-a-brac for sale and makes house to house in the country. He called on Mrs. Cronin, who lives in Arlington, Monday, and assaulted her. The sheriff was notified and took the "gentleman of the road" in "Hand." The justice gave him 30 days. On his release from the jail he will be requested to "beat it."

PAW PAW YOUNG MAN GETS "JOY" FOREVER

Last Thursday afternoon Clarence Brown, our popular monument dealer on South Kalamazoo street, was united in marriage to Miss Faye Joy at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Joy of Bloomingdale. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only the near relatives of the contracting parties being present.

Miss Joy is one of the favorite daughters of Bloomingdale, where she is well known for her charming personality and musical ability. Mr. Brown has been a resident of Paw Paw for several years, coming here from Bloomingdale and purchasing the business of I. A. Whitman. He is a young man well liked and respected by all. He has acquired many friends who, with The True Northerner, extend to the happy couple their best wishes for a long and happy life.

They will take a short wedding trip, after which they will be at home to their friends in the home recently purchased by Mr. Brown of W. H. Jordan and which has undergone many extensive repairs so as to be in readiness for this joyous couple.

GOOD BOOKING AT IDLE HOUR

The Idle Hour has many good bookings for the patrons of this popular play house: Next Friday night "Ne'er Do Well," which has made such a hit in the cities will be on the screen at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Only two shows of this popular photo play—5 acts, 10 reels. Among the other attractions coming soon are:

"Sealed Orders"
"Melting Pot"
